William Skinner and Michael Seh

Steering Column

Aug 16 – September 16, 2021

Steering Column: take suburbia with you. It is a post addressing the issue of suburban sprawl. For their first solo exhibition at Strathmore Regency, William Skinner and Michael Seh blur the boundary between domestic and public spheres.

Steering Column displays the work of the artists -a discarded clothing apparel label, a front yard column, a 4x6 photograph, and an open beer box-. It is a transitive space.
